Re: Raymond Brown v. La Claire
07 Civ. 5906 (KMW)

Dear Judge Wood:

I am the petitioner in the above reference case. On May 27, 2008, I received from ADA Nancy D. Killian's May 21, 2008 affidavit in reply to my Affirmation in Opposition.

At this time I am anticipating in filing a "sur-reply to respondent's affidavit in reply but considering the complex issue and my apparent ability to present the case accordingly. Moreover, I don't have a high school diploma, and I am a barely literate prisoner. Thus, it is necessary that I respectfully request, permission to file a "surreply" and also, request an extension of time to file the motion.

Accordingly, I request that my time to oppose to the merit of the respondent's reply be extended at least twenty-one (21) business days until July 7, 2008. No previous requests have been made. I have not sought or received consent from the respondent.

Thank you for your consideration in this matter.

The Court concludes that surreply papers are unnecessary in this case. See, e.g., Rosa v. City University, No. 04-CV-9139, 2007 WL 1001416, at *1 n.5 (S.D.N.Y. Apr. 2, 2007) (denying plaintiff's request to file a surreply where defendants' reply papers "do not make new c.c.

Very truly yours,
